

Summary of Health Consumer Organisations supported by Medicines Australia Member Companies
For the period: 1 January 2016 - 31 December 2016

Company: Gilead Sciences Pty Limited

Name of Health Consumer Organisation	Description of and/or purpose of support	Nature of support (monetary value or equivalent) or description of non-financial support
Cancer Drugs Alliance	Grant provided to the organisation to support the Cancer Drugs Alliance 2016 who are a non for profit multi stakeholder organisation committed to achieving the best outcomes for cancer patients. This grant donation will assist their committee in conducting economic modeling, research and a comprehensive program of stakeholder consultation whereby the framework will be presented in a paper to the federal government.	$ 30,000
Hepatitis Australia	Grant provided to Hepatitis Australia for the organisation to support communication and consumer information. Their objective is to utilise world hepatitis day to focus community awareness on easier access to treatments which cure hepatitis C and manage hepatitis B. The grant was utilised to produce stakeholder communication, key messages, merchandising, media releases, online assets and graphics	$ 59,090.91
National Association of people with HIV Australia (NAPWHA)	Grant provided to the organisation to support the publication of Positive Living Magazine- their publication is a flagship of the organisation and the Positive Living HIV membership nationally. It has become a valuable information and education resource for the HIV positive community. This grant aids in the production costs of the magazine.	$ 15,000
Positive Life NSW	Grant & Service Fees provided to the organisation to support speakers for their February Internal Conference & Fair Day Exhibition stand costs- Fair day has been held annually since the first spring out pride festival in 1999. Spring out pride festival is Canberra's queer festival which affirms the pride, joy, dignity and identity LGBTIQ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Intersex and Questioning) communities come together through events celebration. Grant & service fees utilised in the aid of media coverage and mainstream print including online media channels & community networking	$1,120
WA AIDS Council	Grant provided to the organisation WAAC (Western Australia Aids Council Inc.) in the form of Co-Support for the Treatment Forum . Purpose to engage and educate people living with HIV in Australia via web based content detailing scientific developments & research news updates on cure advancements within HIV. This grant contributed various event costs.	$ 1,181.82
Queensland Positive People	Grant provided to the organisation with their objective to increase the number of people testing for HIV and syphilis in Toowoomba, the Community HIV Education and Prevention (CHEP) Program project. Program propose to implement a 12-month rapid testing outreach project. This project will trial the effectiveness and acceptability of a rapid testing van to improve the public profile of HIV, as well as rapid HIV and syphilis testing amongst men who have sex with men (MSM). This grant aids in supporting healthcare and/or research.	$ 20,000