

MEDICINES OF TOMORROW

6 December | Virtual and in Canberra

Welcome to Medicines of Tomorrow: the First Horizon Scanning Forum which will showcase new and emerging medicines set to disrupt healthcare in Australia and together explore the implications they hold for patients, systems, processes and resources.

MC: Dr Andrew Rochford

Keynote: Dr Bertalan Meskó, Medical Futurist

Event program

9:00am

Opening and introduction

- > Introduction from the MC.
- > Welcome from the Minister of Health and Aged Care
- > Welcome from CEO of Medicines Australia, Elizabeth de Somer.

9:30am

Keynote address

- > The Crystal Ball: The future of medicines and therapeutics over the next 10 year from Dr Bertalan Meskó, Medical Futurist

10:05am

Fireside chat

- > What is disruption? Discussion with Chair of Medicines Australia, Dr Anna Lavelle and Prof. Brendon Kearney, SA Pathology.

10:45am

Medicines Of Tomorrow Showcase

- > Four powerful presentations and case studies about the latest medical innovations. Disease areas include muscular dystrophy, Alzheimer's disease, cancer and mental health.

12:05pm

Showcase summary

- > A summary of the presentations and what this means for Australia and the future of health with MC Dr Andrew Rochford and CEO Elizabeth de Somer.

Lunch break

Event program continues over page...

Morning tea break

MEDICINES OF TOMORROW

6 December | Virtual and in Canberra

Event program continued...

1:00pm

The patient perspective

> The patient viewpoint on horizon scanning and future health by CEO of Lung Foundation, Mark Brooke.

1:25pm

Case study: PRIMCAT

> How a research program is predicting the population health economic impact of current and new cancer treatments with Dr Fanny Franchini, Prof. Grant McArthur and Dr Jennifer Soon from Melbourne University.

1:45pm

Around the world

> How does the rest of the world prepare for health and medical innovations? Analysis from Dr Franz Pichler from Confluence Health Consulting.

2:05pm

Australia's PBAC

> Insights into how horizon scanning could fit into the Pharmaceutical Benefits Advisory Committee (PBAC)'s current processes from its Chair, Prof. Andrew Wilson.

2:55pm

Modern MedTech

> MedTech is every product, service, or solution using medical technology to improve people's health. What can we expect in the near future? Insight from Paul Davies of Abbott Laboratories.

3:15pm

Panel: Where to next for horizon scanning?

> What does Australia's roadmap look like and how do we get there? Panel discussion with Mark Brooke (Lung Foundation), Dr Anna Lavelle (Medicines Australia Chair), Dr Paul Fennessy and Dr Nick Simpson (Department of Health and Aged Care).

3:45pm

Closing remarks

> Summary of the key messages and themes from the event from Elizabeth de Somer (Medicines Australia).

Afternoon break

Event closed.
Networking drinks until 6pm.