

Summary of Health Consumer Organisations supported by Medicines Australia Member Companies

Company: BeiGene Pty Ltd
For the period: 1 Jan 2023 to 31 Dec 2023

Name of Health Consumer Organisation	Description of and/or purpose of support	Nature of support (monetary value or equivalent) or description of non-financial support
Rare Cancers Australia	The Pinnacle Program 2023 aims to continue building peer-to-peer capacity building amongst patient organisations and the 2023 plan will be to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Expanding the current Playbook to include additional topics e.g., data and evidence-based approaches, genomics etc.</li> <li>- Curate and deliver a core curriculum for online workshop topics. These will be divided into Foundational and Specialist topics</li> <li>- Pitch for Pinnacle competition 2023</li> <li>- Asia-Pacific Oncology Alliance (APOA) project – further details on this initiative are provided below.</li> </ul>	$55,000
Thoracic Oncology Group Australasia Thoracic Oncology Group of Australasia	The TOGA Lung Cancer Preceptorship is a two-day intensive and active learning program for medical trainees, fellows, and a limited number of nurses and consumers, interested in developing their clinical knowledge and expertise in lung cancer management.	$11,000
Leukaemia Foundation	Providing fund to support Leukemia Foundation in regards the digitalisation and production of online and external assets, tools and enhance their capabilities for Blood Cancer Month. Funding will be used between June - December 2023 for a 12 month campaign. The campaign is about Blood Cancer and the primary messaging is centred on the theme: You are not alone. Contact Australia's only dedicated blood cancer support line. This lead in then helps connect patients who are living with any type of blood cancer, as well as HCPs, to a range of materials, education and support provided by Leukaemia Foundation.	$20,000